

Semester in Italy

European Studies Program Spring 2010

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Earn credits toward an undergraduate certificate in European Studies, while living and studying in a vibrant city that is uniquely Italian and 100% European.

FIU's European Studies Program in Italy offers you the opportunity to learn about and experience the political, economic, social, and cultural forces that are shaping contemporary Europe. You'll be based in Genoa, the capital of Italy's Liguria region.

ACADEMICS

Courses are taught in English by faculty of the University of Genoa, founded in 1471 and one of the largest universities in Italy. The program offers you the opportunity to learn about the society and politics of Italy and the European Union. A highlight of the program is the opportunity to conduct independent research on a topic of your choice relating to European Studies.

HOUSING

Student housing is provided in various apartments in the city center. All apartments have kitchens and washing machines, are close to markets, and have easy access to public transportation. Learning how to live in a real Italian city is part of the challenge, reward, and pleasure.

Scholarships Available
Application Deadline is November 13, 2009

Note: FIU is not responsible for delays, changes in itinerary, changes in the content and cost of the program, or other matters that are beyond their control.
